

Regional Representatives

SR Absalom	(Southern)
F Al Ubaidi	(Trent Northern & Yorkshire)
GPR Archbold	(N Ireland)
CE Coulson	(SW & W)
A Munro	(West Midlands)
MD Penney	(Wales)
D Preiss	(Scotland)
L R Ranganath	(North West)
Vacant	(Rep of Ireland)
P Gosling	(Clinical Scientists)
K Mitchell	(Trainees)
I Young	(Academic)

Membership of the Section is open to all ACB members. All medical graduates joining the ACB automatically become members

Interested persons should contact the ACB Office at enquiries@ACB.org.uk

<http://www.acb.org.uk>

Update
2008

CPS aims to raise the profile of clinical practice within the clinical biochemistry community Inform the wider healthcare community of direct patient care provided by clinical biochemistry Support best clinical practice by clinical biochemists

Specialist Interests Division is led by Stuart Smellie

Division has the following Specialist Groups:

- Best practice in clinical biochemistry
- Bone metabolism
- Cardiovascular disease
- Diabetes
- Endocrinology
- Inborn errors of metabolism
- Nutrition

Track record

Division has been providing input into:
NICE guidelines on diabetes
NICE guidelines on hypertension in pregnancy
Guidelines on treatment of lipid disorders
Proposals for standardised test content in commonly requested profiles

Members of the Division contributed to the Best Practice in Pathology Project
<http://www.bettertesting.org.uk>

Training Education and Academic Development Division

is led by Eric Kilpatrick

Current work

Developing clinical dimension to ACB training programmes

Ensuring that clinical aspects are covered adequately in the ACB training courses for scientists and medical staff

Involving medical trainees in the development of all ACB training courses.

Discussing the role of clinical biochemistry in today's integrated medical curricula

Professional Affairs Division is led by Rob Cramb. James Hooper is Deputy

Clinical Excellence Awards Nominations Committee is chaired by Danielle Freedman

Current work

Gathering information on consultant contracts and workload

ACB is recognised as National Professional Society for proposing candidates for National Clinical Excellence Awards

CPS participation in the ACB meetings

CPS organizes Annual meeting of Specialist Registrars and Consultants in Chemical Pathology and sessions at Focus

CPS Executive

Ceridwen Coulson is Chair. Pat Twomey is Vice Chair. Marek Dominiczak is Director of Communications. Executive includes Heads of Divisions and Chair of the Clinical Excellence Awards Nominations Committee

Contact: Chair.CPS@ACB.org.uk

CPS Steering Group

The Steering Group includes members of the Executive and Regional Representatives

The ACB Clinical Practice Section has an increasingly important role in developing and sharing relevant knowledge and collective wisdom across healthcare to enhance patient experience and outcomes. It also acts as a focus for professional support for medical members of the ACB

Ceridwen Coulson

<http://www.acb.org.uk/cps>

<http://www.acb.org.uk>