

Microbiology Trainees' Day, 7th March 2012

ACB Offices, 130-132 Tooley Street, London Bridge

Trainee Clinical Scientists (Grade A and HST) and Supervisors

10.15 - 10.45	Arrival (tea/coffee)
10.45 - 11.00	Introduction	Plan of Day	Dr Mark Garvey Trainees pre-reg rep Dr Kirsty Dodgson/Prof Paul Klapper Chair
11.00 - 11.30	Training session 1	FW&E VTEC O104 Outbreaks in Germany & France in 2011	Dr Nicola Elviss Head of Unit, HPA Food, Water & Environmental Microbiology Laboratory, London
11.30 - 12.00	Training session 2	Electron Microscopy Methods & use in clinical diagnostics & research	Dr Matthew Hannah Lead Electron Microscopist HPA Colindale
12.00 - 12.30	Training session 3	Clinical Research New sequencing technologies in the clinical environment	Dr Keith Jolley Bioinformatician University of Oxford
12.30 - 13.30	LUNCH
13.30 - 14.00	Profession Standards in Clinical Science: Patient confidentiality		Dr Henrik Chart Security of Information Officer HPA Colindale
	Ethical issues		Prof Paul Klapper Consultant Virologist CMFT Manchester
14.00 - 14.30	FRCPath from the examiner's perspective		Prof Armine Sefton Consultant Microbiologist Barts & the London
14.30 - 15.00	Clinical Scientist Microbiology Training Assessment process		Dr Kate Templeton Consultant Virologist Royal Infirmary Edinburgh
15.00 - 15.30	Discussion of professional issues associated with Clinical Scientist training		Prof Armine Sefton Prof Paul Klapper Dr Kate Templeton
16.00	End of day

ACB Members No charge

for the ACB members price you must be a fully paid up member of the ACB at the time of registration

Non-ACB-members £150

To register for the meeting, please e-mail enquiries@acb.org.uk before 27th Feb 2012.

Delegates will only be registered once they have completed and returned a registration form to the ACB office and your place has been confirmed.