

ACB Scotland, National Autumn Meeting

Celebrating the Career of Dr Bill Bartlett

Friday 9th November
The Station Hotel, Perth, PH1 8HE

10.00 – 10.30	Coffee and registration
Morning session Members' Papers and John King Award
Chair: Dr Alana Burns
10.30 – 11.00	Developing an LC-MS/MS assay for anti-hypertensive drugs in urine - Miss Melissa McNaughton
11.00 – 11.30	Establishing a PCR Method for the Diagnosis of Ferroportin Disease - Miss Saliha Haji
11.30 – 12.00	The stability of free β -hCG in blood samples for first trimester Down's Syndrome screening in Scotland - Dr Angela Ballantyne
12.00 – 12.30	Benefits of specific drugs-of-abuse analysis by tandem MS in urine and oral fluid - Dr Paul Cawood
12.30 – 13.30	Lunch
Afternoon session Artificial Intelligence – the future in adding value?
Chair: Dr Kevin Deans
13.30 – 14.10	Biological variation: A necessary prerequisite for test result interpretation - Prof Callum Fraser
14.10 – 14.50	Realising the value of investment in diagnostics: a prime focus delivering new opportunities - Dr Bill Bartlett
14.50 – 15.00	Tea/coffee break
15.00 – 15.40	Information, data and knowledge management: the keys to added value for diagnostic services of the future - Prof Jonathan Kay
15.40 – 16.00	Retiral presentation and presentation of John King Award

For details on how to register please visit the Meetings page of the ACB website, http://www.acb.org.uk/whatwedo/events/regional_meetings.aspx
Please return all registration forms directly to the ACB Office by Friday 26th October

For details regarding location and transport, please visit The Station Hotel website <https://perthstationhotel.co.uk/>

This meeting is possible thanks to generous sponsorship from:

BIOHIT HealthCare
Innovating for Health

ALEXION

SIEMENS

CHROMSYSTEMS
DIAGNOSTICS BY HPLC & LC-MS/MS